

2015 annual report of the Institute

IRES has finalized its 2015 annual report, which summarizes the main achievements in terms of study of domestic structural questions, Morocco's external relations and global issues. The report highlights the key findings of these studies as well as the conclusions of the seminars organized by the Institute. It also presents an overview on cooperation activities with national and international institutions, mainly with think-tanks.

Finalization of IRES.Forum 2015 report

This report draws the main conclusions of 2 international conferences and 35 seminars, held during 2015, within the framework of the debate cycles related to national, regional and international issues as well as the presentation and discussion of recent publications related to structural issues that concern Morocco.

Launch of the IRES's new website

IRES has launched its new website, the content of which has been presented February 18, 2016, to some representatives of the national press.

IRES.Think tank

The threats "daesh" organization

IRES conducted this study which has identified the ideological referential that underpins the indoctrination and recruitment strategy of "daesh" organization. Some solutions were explored in order to stem the threats emanating from this organization.

What levers to build a strategy of Morocco's Label?

The report of this study identified, based upon a strategic diagnosis, the distinctive elements over which the Kingdom could build its label strategy, with reference to the experiences of ten developed and emerging countries.

IRES Watch

Training session on the deep web

IRES has organized on January 14-15, 2015, a training session in order to strengthen the capacities of its staff members in terms of appropriation of tools and technics for identifying and collecting information on the deep web, applied to two case studies: climate change and ecological footprint.

Webographic watch bulletin for January and February 2016

The January and February 2016 editions of the "Webographic watch bulletin" available on the website of the Institute, present summaries of several prospective reports. These reports tackle various issues, such as: renewable energy, migration, climate justice, energy transition.

Webographic bulletin / January 2016

Webographic bulletin / February 2016

IRES.Forum

The distinctive elements of Morocco's label

This meeting, which took place on January 19, 2016, attended by institutional actors and experts of issues related to Nation Branding, was devoted to the discussion of the main components of Morocco's label as a federative brand of other sectoral brands.

What contribution of think tanks to the debate on strategic issues of Morocco?

Held on January 27, 2016, in partnership with OCP Policy Centre, this meeting emphasized the importance to enhance the culture of think tanks in Morocco and the need to orient their research work on the strategic Kingdom's strategic priorities.

The migration crisis in Europe: between security requirements and humanitarian considerations

This theme has been discussed during the round table organized on 17 February 2016, in partnership with Konrad Adenauer Foundation, which shed light on the root causes of migration crisis in Europe, the actions deployed at European level to deal within this situation as well as the required levers to solve the structural issue of migration.

Expert meeting on relations between Morocco and Russia

This expert meeting held on February 24, 2016, emphasized the reality and prospects of cooperation between Morocco and Russia, with view to regional and international geopolitical and geo-economic mutations.

IRES.Cooperations

Exchanges with Futuribles International

On the margins of his participation on January 14, 2016, at the meeting devoted to the presentation of the report Vigie 2016, Mr. Mohammed Tawfik Mouline, Director General of IRES and Mr. Hugues de JOUVENEL, President of Futuribles International, discussed the opportunity to conduct a joint foresight exercise dedicated to the Mediterranean.

Interviews with UNESCO officials

The Director General of the Institute, met on January 15, 2016, with officials from UNESCO comprising the Director of foresight and the Director of the African Department, to discuss possibilities of collaboration in areas of interest common.

Work Meetings

Visit to IRES of the Ambassador of Pakistan to Morocco

IRES' Director General, Mr. Mohammed Tawfik MOULINE received on January 17, 2015, His Excellency Mr. Nadir CHUDHRI, Ambassador of Pakistan to Morocco. This meeting was devoted to the presentation of the Institute's mission and to the exploration of cooperation opportunities between IRES and think tanks from Pakistan.

Work meeting with a French delegation

A work meeting was held on February 19, 2016, with a delegation of France Embassy in preparation of the international conference to be organized by IRES in June 2016, in partnership with the French Institute of Morocco, on the issue of radicalization and counter-radicalization.

Agenda

Presentation and discussion of the book "Women and men in the Quran: What equality?"

March 10, 2016

Joint meeting IRES-Panafrican Institute of Strategies "Security issues and challenges in Africa"

March 11, 2016

Roundtable organized by IRES on "Relations between Africa and South America" at Crans Montana Forum in Dakhla

March 21, 2016

Conference on "Morocco-United Kingdom relations", facilitated by the Ambassador of the United Kingdom to Morocco

April 12, 2016

About the IRES

Study Programs

Strategic Watch

Meetings and Debates

Publications

For more information, visit our website

www.ires.ma

Copyright © IRES 2015